Seasonable Poetry.

☞The following exquisite lines, by Montgomery, which we take from an old English magazine, may not be inapplicable at this moment, when a whole people are called upon to discard and persecute the stranger and the oppressed:

The Stranger and his Friend.

"Ye have done it unto me."—Matt. xxv., 40.

A poor wayfaring man of grief
Hath often crossed me on my way,
Who sued so humbly for relief
That I could never answer "Nay;"
I had not power to ask his name,
Whither he went or whence he came,
Yet there was something in is eye
That won my love, I know not why.

Once, when my scanty meal was spread
He entered not a word he spake;
Just perishing for want of bread,
I gave him all; he blessed it, brake,
And ate, but gave me part again;
Mine was an Angel's portion then,
For, while I fed with eager haste,
The crust was manna to my taste.

I spied him, where a fountain burst
Clear from the rock; his strength was gone;
The heedless water mocked his thirst;
He heard it, saw it hurrying on.
I ran to raise the sufferer up;
Thrice from the stream he drained my cup,
Dipt, and returned it running o'er;
I drank, and never thirsted more.

'Twas night; the floods were out; it blew
A winter hurricane aloof;
I heard his voice abroad, and flew
To bid him welcome to my roof;
I warmed, I clothed, I cheered my guest,
Laid him on my couch to rest;
Then made the hearth my bed, and seemed
In Eden's garden while I dreamed.

Stript, wounded, beaten nigh to death,
I found him by the highway side;
I roused his pulse, brought back his breath,
Revived his spirit, and supplied
Wine, oil, refreshment; he was healed:
I had myself a wound concealed,
But from that hour forgot the smart,
And Peace bound up my broken heart.

In prison I saw him next, condemned
To meet a traitor's doom at morn;
The tide of lying tongues I stemmed,
I honored him 'midst shame and scorn;
My friendship's utmost zeal to try,
He asked if I for him would die?
The flesh was weak, my blood ran chill,
But the free spirit cried, "I will."

Then in a moment to my view
The Stranger darted from disguise,
The token in his hands I knew,
My Saviour stood before mine eyes;
He spake; and my poor name He named;
"Of Me thou hast not been ashamed;
These deeds shall thy memorial be;
Fear not thou didst them unto Me."

Tumbling to Pieces.

The Know-Nothing Party, says the North American, is in a curiously split up condition, in consequence of the proceedings of the last National Convention. The Louisiana branch of the order has disavowed all connection with the National Council and repudiated the Catholic plank of its platform. The State Councils of Maine, Vermont, Massachusetts, R. Island, Pennsylvania and Illinois, have rejected the national platform, and most of them have made creeds of their own, differing essentially from the general one, not only in reference to slavery but to other questions. In New England and the West the seceders have liberalized their principles so as to include many classes of naturalized citizens. In some cases also the opposition to Catholics has been softened down to an opposition against all ecclesiastical despotism. In Vermont the organization has been thrown open, assumed the name of the American party, and declared against the extension of slavery.—There are scarcely two of these northern platforms alike. In New Jersey no State action has yet been had, but all the councils of Trenton and Newark have rejected the National creed, and declared in favor of the restoration of the Missouri compromise. In Pennsylvania, a portion of the Councils, attached to the national platform, have bolted since the action at Reading, and organized a new State body, which, by the way, has a majority in the Executive Council of the party in Philadelphia. Two of the seceders were from Montgomery county, and of these one has since been repudiated by the Council here represented, that of the upper Ward of Norristown, which, as the Herald tells us, has approved of the State action, and denounced the national platform. What is the exact condition of things in Philadelphia it is difficult to tell.

K. N. WITHDRAWALS IN ALABAMA!

In the town of Centre Star, Lauderdale county, Alabama, there is, or rather there was, a know-nothing lodge which numbered about one hundred and twenty-five members. A very large majority of the lodge soon became thoroughly disgusted with know-nothingism, its leaders, doctrines, and practices, which disgust resulted in their quietly withdrawing from the order. The North Alabamian, a leading know-nothing organ, accounts for this wholesale stampede after this fashion:

"The anti-American papers hereabouts are making a great 'miration' over the know-nothing explosion, of Centre Star council, in Lauderdale county, Alabama. The facts of the case are simply these, as we are informed: The council numbered about 125 members, among whom were a number of hard cases, which the more respectable portion of the council wished to get rid of, and as the easiest way to accomplish that, without wounding their feelings and creating excitement, they concluded to disband, which they did."

The withdrawing members, numbering eighty persons, with the view of letting the public know who the "hard cases" were whom the minority succeeded in getting rid of, have published a card, in which their reasons are given in detail for their withdrawal from the lodge. The "hard cases" prove to be some of the most respectable citizens in northern Alabama, as the following list of their names satisfactorily demonstrates:

| D. F. Harrison, | James H. Stewart, |
| Dennis Holden, | Aaron Crow, |

| James J. Hindman, | Alsy Richardson, |
| Joseph N. Douglass, | Wm. B. Tays, |
| D. Joiner, | Quinton Askew. |

We suspect that before the election takes place in Alabama a very large addition will be made to the above list of "hard cases."

In Choctaw county, Mississippi, Mr. H. C. Avant has set a noble example. He was induced to join the order and they tendered him the nomination for the office of sheriff. But discovering the character of the organization, he abandoned it and declined to run for the lucrative office for which he was nominated. In the Mississippian we find the following card, signed by forty-one voters of Yazoo county, seven of whom are whigs:

To the Public.—Being convinced from our connexion with what is commonly called the know-nothing party, that we have been deluded as to its aims and purposes, we therefore publish to the world, and particularly to the so-called know-nothing party, that we are no longer members of that organization. As to the secrets and obligations connected with the order, we shall hold them inviolate, and in dissolving our connexion with it, we do so with a conscientious belief that the operations of the order are dangerous to the practical workings of this republican government—dangerous to the liberties of the people—and that they trammel the free exercise of the elective franchise.

STILL ANOTHER.

The following notice of a withdrawal from the "order" we find in the Memphis Appeal:

Raleigh, (Tenn.,) July 3, 1855.

Messrs. Editors: I take this opportunity of informing the public that I have withdrawn from the lanternites, other-wise know-nothings. I have always been a true democrat, and will heartily co-operate with that party, and sustain its present ticket throughout.

The know-nothing party has for its leaders consummate demagogues, office-seekers, broken down in the old parties, seeking to revive their political fortunes.

Its true principles—very different from its assumed principles—I believe to be devoid of patriotism. You can give this a place in the columns of the Appeal.

Yours, &c.,

McGILBRE HATHAWAY.

And Still They Come!

The papers from the interior of Mississippi are teeming with notices of withdrawal from know-nothing lodges. The following cards appear in the Central Journal:

We hereby dissever our connexion with the know-nothing trick. H. H. HAWES, T. NORWOOD.

The following gentlemen, citizens of Attala, in a long and well-written card, announce their withdrawal through the columns of Roy's Southern Sun:

|---|---|
| A. M. Atkison, | D. L. Smythe, |
| H. P. Donald, | J. Riley, |
| Billups Burt, | Robert Sanders. |
| J. McCullum, | |

We take this method of informing all whom it may concern of our withdrawal from the order of know-nothings. We were deceived in joining the order; we believe it to be anti-democratic, and destructive to the true interests of our country. In doing so, we act as our judgment dictates; and being accountable for our actions, we hold that we have a right to act for ourselves. ANDREW P. HARRIS, J. N. WILLIAMS, J. B. DUMAS DAVIS WALLACE, I. HAREY, A. B. WILLIAMS.

Greenborough, June 23, 1855.

My name appears to-day as the candidate of know-nothing party for coroner of this county. I am no candidate for that office, and never authorized my name to be used in that connexion, and hereby signify my withdrawal from that order, and full concurrence in the sentiments of others whose cards appear to-day.

D. T. MORGAN.

Know-Nothing withdrawals in Mississippi.

To use the language of the Memphis Appeal, "know-nothingism seems to be breaking flat down in Mississippi," and this announcement will do no discredit to the intelligence, virtue, and patriotism of that great State. The following letter speaks for itself:

Spring Hill, (Miss.,) July 5, 1855.

To the President and Council at Spring Hill, Mississippi:

"We are at fault, and can't follow."

When we joined this council, we joined in good faith, and have acted accordingly since our membership, but, becoming satisfied that "Americans [illegible] to rule America"—and that, too, without the assistance of secret political associations—we therefore, as members of your council, do hereby most respectfully withdraw from this order, that we may exercise our elective franchise constitutionally, and according to the dictates of our own conscience and judgment, untrammelled by the dictates of any man or set of men. BENJ. MYRICK, Jr. THOMAS C WHITLOCK.

The Mississippian of the 3d instant publishes a number of withdrawals from the oath-bound know-nothings in the counties of Yazoo, Choctaw, and Attala.

The People's Press (published in De Soto county, Mississippi) says that "on the 28th ultimo a large number of democrats who had attached themselves to the know-nothing order assembled at the Hernando Hotel to deliberate upon the most efficacious plan of declaring their independence from the yoke of political bondage they had, in an unsuspecting moment, fastened upon their democratic principles." We understand (says the Press) that their council was characterized with many resolves, and all united save one in absolving themselves forever from the shrine of intolerance. When this news reached the main body of the democratic army, a company was detached to receive them with the democratic flag flying, the presentation of arms, and the fife and drum playing "Hail Columbia."

From the Venango Spectator.

Renunciation.

The writer of the following renunciation need no commendation from us. In this place, where he has resided from boyhood, he is known as a young man of industry, and probity, and however customary it may be for Know Nothings to assail those who pursue a similar course, no one dare openly say aught against the purity of motives nor the truthfulness of what he asserts. We ask the intelligent, independent freemen of the county to examine Mr. Kinnear's communication, and then tell us whether or not Know Nothingism is what it professes.

Franklin, June 25.

Messrs. Editors:—About the time of the last election, I was induced, through the persuasion of others, to become a member of the order of Know Nothings. I was informed that the order was a good one, and that no pledge of any kind would be asked of me, which would in any way bind my conscience, or freedom to act in all things as I saw proper. After my initiation, I found that I had been grossly deceived, and would have immediately left, had it not been that myself in common with any other who dared to leave were informed that we would be published through all the councils as perjurers, and men unworthy of confidence, and also be opposed and persecuted in our business. These threats account for my remaining so long in the order. They are still repeated on all occasions when deemed necessary, but I have now learned to despise them, even if my business may have to suffer. I am resolved that my conscience, at least, shall be clear. The fact of my having been a Know Nothing is a public matter, and I ask the use of your columns to make equally public the fact that I have withdrawn myself from all connection with the organization, and will hereafter act and vote with that party to which I have at heart been attached. P. Kinnear.

From the Washington (Pa.) Review.

And Still they Come!

Below we publish the withdrawal of Elliot Patterson Esq., from the Know Nothing lodge at Claysville in this county. Mr. Patterson is well known to be an honest, upright and conscientious man; and no person acquainted with the goodness of his heart and the purity of his notions, will for one moment doubt that anything save the Jesuitical duplicity of the dark lantern party, could have drawn him within the influence of its midnight plottings. The order is too base to live long. Its systematic lying may now and then entrap a good man, but it is too vile to hold him, and sooner or later, like Mr. P., he will wash his hands of it. It will be opserved that the final inducement held out to Mr. P., was that if he became dissatisfied, he could withdraw; and further, that a certain prominent individual among them would secede with him. Now who is this prominent K. N? We presume nine-tenths of our readers will "understand" who he is without much difficulty. And as "prominence" amongst the Thugs, comes of facility in lying, we presume he merits his standing. Read the letter:

To the Democracy of Washington co.

I have felt it due to the Democracy of Washington county, with whom I have long acted, to make a brief statement of the deceptions, corruptions, and false representations of the K. N. party, in order to get members.—Two weeks ago, I was in the town of Claysville; I was strongly and earnestly solicited by certain prominent men, who have heretofore been called Democrats, to join the order, telling me that if there was anything that I did not like, I could come out at any time, and one of the persons above referred to who occupies at this time, a conspicuous place in that order, promised to come out with me. I was also promised the Commissioner's office next fall: these with many other inducements were held out to me: I consented, and was initiated by taking the oaths, and from the moment I joined I was dissatisfied, finding that there was nothing but corruption in the order, and that I would be bound to lie, prevaricate and make all kinds of misrepresentations, and do things which I thought inconsistent with, and contrary to genuine Christianity, and to remain in such an order, I found I must get my conscience seared as it were with a hot iron, and banish the fear of God from my eyes. I accordingly resolved to come out from among the foul party, and went to my K. N. friend, referred to, who was to withdraw with me, and wished him to come out with me, but he refused, stating that the position he now occupied prevented him, whereupon, I demanded and obtained my discharge. I would just say to all who are not in the order, to beware and not let the false representations and inducements held out by said party lead you astray. I now feel that I am a freeman, breathing pure air and ready and willing to act in concert with my old Democratic friends, and for the good of the Democratic party which I have been taught to revere from my youth. I feel that the shackles are off of my feet, and I am determined, if spared to go to the election next fall, to vote the Democratic ticket, the whole ticket and nothing but the ticket.

ELLIOT PATTERSON.

Know-Nothing Withdrawals in Georgia.

A card appears in the Augusta Constitutionalist, signed by a number of respectable citizens of Sparta, Georgia, in which their reasons are given at length for their withdrawal from a know-nothing lodge. They say:

"We deem it proper to state that on entering the order we were assured that whenever we might become dissatisfied with it we could withdraw in good faith, and without hindrance or obstruction. Without this assurance men could never be induced to assume the obligations of the order. This free privilege of quitting is universally used by know-nothings as an answer to the charge that the order trammels the freedom of the elective franchise by subjecting the individual judgment of its members to the will of the order. We, therefore, in withdrawing, considered that we were exercising a right which had been guaranteed to us from the beginning, and which could not justly expose us to a charge of 'treason' or 'perjury.' It may be true in theory that any member may quit when he pleases, but practically it is false when he can obtain his discharge only by passing through the terrible ordeal of being denounced as a deserter, a traitor,' and 'perjured renegade,' and as having signed 'the manifest of his own infamy.'

Such denunciations as illustrated in the newspapers, and on the streets, and in the bye-ways and corners, are not so much intended to act upon those who have quit as they are meant to play upon the fears of those who yet remain in. They are intended to throw an obstruction and hindrance and terror around the exercise of the right to quit—the right of exercising individual will and private judgment."

The card is signed by the following-named gentlemen:

|---|---|
| Henry L. Battle, | M. M. Holsey, |
| J. H. Mitchell, | A. B. Buckner, |
| Frank Burnet, | J. W. Johnson. |

The old Whig Guard in Kentucky Repudiates Know-nothingism.—The Frankfort Yeoman says that six out of the twelve Scott presidential electors in Kentucky in 1852 refuse to go know-nothingism. The following are their names:

"Joshua F. Bell, of Boyle; Wm. Preston, of Louisville; Lucien Anderson, of Graves; Curtis F. Burnam, of Madison; Thos. F. Marshall, of Woodford; Thos. B. Stevenson, of Mason. To these names might be added those of Henry G. Bibb, acting lieutenant-governor of the State; Albert G. Talbot, Hon. Joseph R. Underwood, Hon. Archibald Dixon, and a host of the very flower of old whig chivalry."

More Withdrawals.

There appears to be no diminution in the number of withdrawals from the Tennessee know-nothing lodges. In the last number received of the Nashville Union we find the following card:

To the Public.—I was induced, by false representations of its objects, to join the know-nothing council, as it is usually called, in the third district. I am a democrat, and always have been one. I soon found that I had been thoroughly hoodwinked when I joined the order; and that I had surrendered my right, not only to be a democrat, but to vote for anybody not dictated to me by others. I have been a freeman all my life except while a know-nothing, and that I might retain that station I have demanded that my name be erased from the list of know-nothings. I feel that I owe my old associates in the democratic party this public statement as an atonement for having for a moment, and through the deception of others, been untrue to the democratic party, the true American party. J. A. STANLEY.

Davidson county, July 11.

HON. JAMES CAMPBELL.

Postmaster General Campbell was on a visit to Philadelphia last week, and received a cordial and enthusiastic welcome. On Friday he rode down to the Navy Yard, where he was received with a salute of seventeen guns, as a mark of respect for the high official position he holds in the Government. The Judge arrived at the Bedford Springs on last Tuesday evening, much to the gratification of his numerous friends. A more honest, efficient, and courteous officer never held position at Washington. His management of the intricate and complicated affairs of the Post Office Department will favorably compare with that of any other man ever appointed to the responsible trust. In fact it is generally conceded that he has been the most laborious officer ever placed at the head of that Department. Amidst all his duties, however, he never fails to treat those who call upon him with the greatest respect and attention, a trait to be found in the character of the fewest number of our public men.

THE ANTI-LICENSE LIQUOR LAW

As passed by a K. N. Legislature

And aprroved by

GOV. POLLOCK!

Immediately after the passage of the anti-License JUG Law, we published in the Gazette both the Bill and the vote by which it was passed—and, as the time is close at hand for the measure to go into operation, we have deemed it proper to re-publish the Record in order that the people may be enabled to pass upon its provisions, understandingly, at the approaching election. It will be seen that the Bill passed the Senate by only ONE vote, FR. JORDAN, Esq. of Bedford, voting for it, notwithstanding the people of the District he professed to represent, decided against ANY Prohibitory Law by a majority of nearly two thousand votes!! If he had voted against the Bill, as he had been instructed to do, it could not have passed, and the people would have been spared the humiliation of beholding an act of Assembly in the Old Keystone State which is a silly and contemptible mass of confused ideas, meaning anything and nothing, just as you please. The Record shows that Mr. Jordan held the power of its passage through the Senate in his own hands, and, without venturing to utter a word in exposition of its gross deformity, he quietly treated with contempt the instructions of his constituents, and took upon himself the authority to reverse their judgment, deliberately expressed at the Polls—an outrage upon popular sentiment such as the Press is seldom called upon to record.—Now, if any thing could be meaner than the Jug Law itself, it is the conduct of this "honorable" Senator in trying to attach the odium of the measure to every other than the proper source! The people of this District and of the State having decided against a Prohibitory liquor Law, the Legislature had no right to entertain the question in any other way than to submit it again to a popular vote. None but fanatics of the worst class will dare to enact laws which the people have rejected in a legal form.

Now turn to the other side of the record, and you have the cordial approval of Gov. POLLOCK to this Bill of Abominations. He had the power, under the Constitution, with a single dash of the pen, to have rendered void this extraordinary enactment of an ignorant and corrupt Legislature, but he, too, trampled beneath his feet the voice of the people without even giving them a word of explanation! Hence the proof is clear, beyond successful contradiction, that a Know Nothing House—a Know Nothing Senate—and a Know Nothing Governor—were the sole instruments in passing a law, which, in effect, is designed to curtail the revenue of the State about two hundred thousand dollars annually—render almost valueless all Hotel and Tavern property—and increase drunkenness to an extent heretofore unknown in this commonwealth. It has been left for Know Nothingism to treat the people as though they were slaves; and if they are still willing to bow their necks to receive the yoke, we have nothing to say. We ask them, however, to preserve the Bill and the vote, and keep them conspicuously before the voters, who are competent to be their own judges.

☞We take the liberty of making the following extract from a letter recently received from an old and valued friend, which says a great deal in a few words:—

BALTIMORE, July 21, 1855.

FRIEND BOWMAN:—The idea that in the nineteenth century, politicians should be called upon to aid one party of professing Christians, in putting down another, is, I was about to say, evidence that the world is retrograding—and that what we call the dark ages, were the ages of light, to which we are now returning!!

I will not say, because I do not believe, that this order called Know-Nothings, had its origin in the Christian Church. There is a class of men spread all over this country, who being neither hot nor cold, as politicians, have been spewed out of the mouths of both the Democratic and whig parties, as unworthy of confidence. These are the fathers of this new ism. They are like the troubled sea, constantly throwing up mud and filth. They resort to any means, however despicable, to attain their ends. In the North and West they ride the negro question, connected with know nothingism. In the East and some of the middle states they connect as far as they can, the question of Temperance with their new farce. North and West of Mason's and Dixon's line, the principle incentive offered to induce men to join the Lodges is the hue and cry against Catholicity. South of that line the Catholic is invited to join them. So that you see they are all things to all men. Fanning the flame of prejudice where prejudice exists. Raising discord wherever they find suitable material—giving credence to falsehood, misrepresentation and fraud, in order to deceive and decoy. In this way the uninformed are entrapped, and induced to swear they will obey the orders of their masters in Council, and vote for only such men as they shall name through the vote of the Councils, whether they agree politically with such nominee or not! By this means they expect to ride rough-shod over the liberties of the People, into power and place.

Viewing the matter in this light, as to its origin and objects, I feel bound, as a Protestant Christian and a Democrat, to oppose its progress. It is a disgrace to the name of America, and a counterfeit upon the true sentiments of her enlightened people.

Wishing you every success in your efforts in the cause of Religious and political Liberty,

I remain your friend,

D. BLOCHER.

☞We invite especial attention to the valuable Real Estate advertised for sale in the Gazette of to-day by JOHN H. BRIGGS, Esq., of Harrisburg. The lands are certainly among the most valuable in Bedford County, and the location is beautiful and healthy. Persons desirous of purchasing Real Estate could not do better than to turn their attention to this offer.

☞The reader is also directed to the advertisement of Judge NOBLE, who offers for sale a very valuable farm in Woodbury township.

GOV. POLLOCK AGAIN.

☞The Chambersburg Whig "supposes" Governer Pollock to be a member of the Know-Nothing Party, but denies that he is "intolerant, illiberal, or proscriptive, either in politics or religion." That Gov. Pollock is not a man of this disposition, naturally, we have always believed, and said so both before and after his election—but having assumed the dreadful obligations of the Order, he is as much accountable for the propagation of the "revolting features" of Know-Nothingism as any man connected with the Chambersburg or any other Lodge—and the only possible way to relieve himself from the deep odium which hangs to his skirts is to follow the example set by Mr. BAIRD, by publicly denying his connection with this pestilential combination against the Constitution and the best interests of civilized life. Let him adopt the language of the Whig, and boldly proclaim to the world that no good citizen ought to act with a party where "five black-guards can overrule as many hundred respectable men," and he will receive credit for sincerity when he is announced as being hostile to intolerance and proscription! Know Nothingism in Franklin county is no more revolting than Know-Nothingism in any other part of the State, and the man who, as Governor of this great Commonwealth, quietly acquiesces in their mid-night conspiracies, by declining to aid in exposing them, is justly more censurable than those who hold no official relation to the people. Does Mr. Pollock endorse the policy of the Whig in its manly opposition to this dark lantern oligarchy? If he does and will make the fact appear, we will cordially join that Journal in tendering him the highest encomiums due to true Patriotism. But so long as Gov. Pollock maintains his membership in the Order, the Freemen of Pennsylvania will hold him accountable for aiding and abetting in upholding all the iniquity charged upon the Know-Nothings of Chambersburg. Mr. BAIRD, who was their candidate for justice of the Supreme Court has published a letter declaring that "he never has been, and never can be, a Know-Nothing," notwithstanding he was solemnly declared such, by the Executive Committee, before the election! Then, if Gov. Pollock does not favor its enormities, why does he not speak out like a man? Why does he not lend the influence his position gives him to strike down a monster he helped to create, and which seeks to subvert everything that is dear to freemen? Can the Whig give any good reason why the Governor, (a member of the Order,) should no repudiate its gross violations of all that pertains to decency and right, if he does not sanction them? Is not this due to the Constitution, to his oath of office, and to the people whose interests he is sworn to protect? We have no desire to do injustice to Governor Pollock, and in asking these questions, we trust the Whig will not consider us "censorious," but give the public what information he can touching the points alluded to. We say, in the sincerity of our heart, that if any prominent Democrat would refuse to give his opinion on this exciting question, we would hold him just as guilty as if he had subscribed to their oaths and cordially sanctioned all their acts—and, if a Democratic State Convention, or the Democratic Press, would even lend their countenance to build up a secret oath-bound political association, we would denounce them as fully and as emphatically as we have denounced the present organization, regardless of whom it displeased. Hence, we cannot but admire the bold and manly course now pursued by the editor of the Whig.

☞The EXPOSURES of Know-Nothingism, which we publish on the first page, will be read with thrilling interest. These exposures, it will be remembered, come from men who joined the Order in good faith, and were driven from it by the dreadful outrages perpetrated in the Lodges to which they belonged. All true Democrats, who have been decoyed into the organization, will follow the patriotic ex- [illegible] who joined through corrupt motives will stick and become the fag end of the old federal party. The press of the nation is daily and weekly filled with Know Nothing renunciations.

Letter of Rev. John A. Collins.

☞The eloquent and masterly letter written by Rev. JOHN A. COLLINS, and re-published in the Bedford Gazette a few weeks since, is going the rounds of the press thoughout the length and breadth of the land, with commentaries of the highest character. A letter from an eminent minister of the Baptist Church, well known in Bedford County, is before us, from which we make free to lay before our readers the following extract:

BELLEFAIR MILLS, Stafford Co., Va., July 25, 1855.

DEAR SIR:—In passing through Pennsylvania a few weeks since, on a tour of preaching, I saw several No's of your paper, the Bedford Gazette, with which I was well pleased, and have concluded to propose an exchange with you. If agreeable to you, send the Gazette directed to "Zion's Advocate."

I brought home with me a copy of your paper containing the letter of Rev. JOHN A. COLLINS, with which I was so much gratified that I have had it published and circulated freely in the Old Dominion. MR. C. is not of my denomination, but I receive TRUTH no matter from whence it comes.

Respectfully Yours,

JOHN CLARK.

To Gen. Bowman.

☞The Rev. Mr. FULTON will preach in the Lutheran Church on next Sabbath evening.

Wholesale Exposure.

☞The Chambersburg Repository and Whig of last week contains a home exposure of the doings of Know-Nothingism, truly revolting, and calculated to sicken and disgust the reader with the gross wickedness which has taken possession of a portion of the people. The writer of this exposure is a member of the order, and says he is fully prepared to substantiate the charges he prefers. In alluding to this exposure, the Whig says:

"It is true, as stated in the communication, that Mr. ROMESON was authorized by the Editor of this paper to present his name as a member of the Council, and we never did anything in better faith. We had up to that period acted in consultation with the leading members of that party, and sought to advance its interests, because we believed that it would prove a powerful ally in our warfare upon the Democracy. Its alleged intolerance, in either politics or religion, was uniformly and repeatedly denied, and we had every reason to believe that we could act with it consistently as a Whig, and that it would eventually become a part of the Whig party.

We learned a lesson, however, when our name got behind the scenes; and when we found a handful of irresponsible creatures controlling the whole action of the Order, and wielding it as a mere instrument to minister to the wants of starving newspapers and broken-down politicians, we did not hesitate to denounce the system, and the record we give in another column fully vindicates us in the course we have taken.

We could have been connected with the Know-Nothing party both before and after the action of this Council; we have been waited upon repeatedly since, both at home and and abroad, and importuned to become a member of the Order; but we can act with no party where five blackguards can overrule as many hundred respectable men, and where the names of men without political or moral blemish, can be dragged before the inquisition, without their knowledge, for the avowed purpose of impairing their political standing. That this was done here in this Council, in the case of ISAAC H. MCCAULEY, Esq., we are fully prepared to prove. We give the names of the persons who were conspicuous in the effort and who, supposing themselves sheltered by the oath bound secrecy of the members, earnestly urged the presentation of his name in order to reject him, and injure him, as well as Gov. POLLOCK, in the Councils abroad.

We were not surprised after the insight we got into the system in December last, that the Council here should even go so far as to dictate to its members what papers they should withdraw their subscriptions from, and what ones they should support.—Such a resolution was adopted in this Council, as our correspondent states, and copies of it were ordered to be sent to the different Councils of the county. All this—the rejection of the Editor of this paper in violation of all rules, after having been thrice elected—the presentation and rejection of Mr. MCCAULEY'S name without his authority or knowledge, and the passage of the resolution requesting the members to withdraw their support from this paper,—was done in compliance with the earnest begging of the little organ's friends to keep it from starving! It did not pretend to claim a living support on its own merits; but it coaxed and bullied the Councils to take it under their especial protection, until hundreds of intelligent, high-minded members were driven from the party in disgust.

This series of outrages upon decency and justice perpetrated by STEMBAUGH, EYSTER, STREALY CLARK & Co., has left the Council in this place but a nominal existence. We shall bring forward any necessary number of men of undoubted veracity, to attest the correctness of the charges preferred against it under the lead of the few demagogues who control it; and if there are any reputable men still half-clinging to the tottering structure, they will be compelled by the force of popular opinion to seek safety by an early withdrawal. Already a number have done so; and others mean to absent themselves forever without a formal separation. A card signed by eight or ten was sent into the Council last week, and the decision of the very grave body, with about twelve men in attendance, was that those persons should not be permitted to withdraw unless they should come and do so in person. Stumbaugh, Eyster & Strealy decreed it, and the "Yankee office-hunter" doubtless concurred!

—We submit the facts presented in this paper to the candid, dispassionate reflection of every honorable and just man, and we shall abide by the popular verdict as to the correctness of our course. We could long since have exposed the disreputable conduct of the leaders of this Council, driven to betray its secrets, to divert public attention from its falsehoods and petty trickery on other issues. It has now raised the curtain, and we rejoice that we have an ample opportunity of vindicating ourself, and of exposing the unparalleled political villainy that has marked the Know-Nothing Council of Chambersburg.

It is but just to say that but few of the many who once belonged to this Council, can in any degree be held responsible for these actions, as the better portion of its members were soon driven from active participation in its proceedings by the tricksters who still adhere to it, and who proscribe all who refuse to sanction continued secret action. The names of those who are responsible for these actions, however, can be forthcoming if necessary!

THE ELECTION OF GENERAL JO. LANE.

As is usual with the opposition, now congregated under the name of know-nothings, great hopes were entertained and many predictions made that the indomitable General Lane, of Oregon, would be defeated in his canvass for re-election to Congress; but the result has been his complete and commanding triumph. The Democracy have been victorious throughout the Territory, and the majority of Gen. Lane is about 1,800. The Democrats met all the great issues boldly. They flung their banner to the breeze inscribed with hostility to the whole creed of know-nothingism, approved the fearless administration of Franklin Pierce, and endorsed the Nebraska bill and the Baltimore platform. The enemy, led on by Major Gaines, (who can now boast of having been twice captured—once by the Mexicans, and once by one of the conquerors of the Mexicans,) made a most desperate struggle against General Lane. They spent thousands of dollars, their orators patrolled the Territory, and with the circus shows and other frolics, and the repetition of the most outrageous slanders against the old hero, they managed to coalesce every ism, faction, and discontent against him. His unflinching courage and undying perseverence were, however, too much for them. He did as he did at Buena Vista, when he was in the van of danger, and may claim to have achieved a victory only next to that of Virginia herself. Well may our correspondent, writing from Oregon, say: "There is no more a living or competent organization in opposition to the true democracy of the country;"

What a hope-cheering prospect is this! The democracy of the United States speaking the same truths, united upon the same platform, as well in the far-off forests of Oregon as on the coasts of Maine as well in Texas as in California, as well in the West as in the East. And what a contrast it is to the conflicting and distracted councils of the many-headed opposition, which trembles daily for fear of falling to pieces from its own corrupt divisions.—Washington Union.

☞The Kentucky Yeoman thus notices the manly, patriotic stand taken by Hon. James B. Clay in the present political crisis:

"Mr. Clay has declared himself, we understand, in favor of the democratic ticket in the present conflict, and while it rejoices the know nothing heart of Hon. Garrett Davis to its inmost core—to use his own phases—to hear that Andrew Jackson Donelson, nephew of old Mrs. Jackson, has sworn allegiance to Sam, and made a Hindoo speech, we of the democratic party can point with a nobler pride to the lofty position assumed by son and heir of old Hal. Donelson has not a drop of old Hickory's blood in his veins, but the son of Henry Clay is 'bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh' of that old statesman. Young Clay acquired his political opinions from a noble and pure whig source—from the great fountain of whig principles. He imbibed them with his mother's milk. He has treasured up, and now stands gallantly in defence of, his father's precepts. Is there a man who blames the son for venerating the memory of his father—of such a father?"

The true Policy for true Whigs.

☞The following article from the Maryland Republican, a staunch constitution-loving Whig journal, is well worthy the attention of the old line Whigs of Bedford county:

"It would be folly in the extreme for the shattered remnant of the whig party to attempt an independent organization, for a large majority of its members have gone over to the know-nothings: but such is not the case with the democrats. They are formidable in numbers, and firmly resolved to interpose their whole strength for the protection of the Constitution against the assaults of its know-nothing invaders. Can the conservative whigs of Maryland, step upon the broad platform of the Constitution, and stand, side by side, with their democratic brethren battling with the common enemy of both, and in defence of the rights of conscience, and of civil and religious liberty? If they can, then can the union be practically consummated.—The democrats will extend to them the right hand of fellowship and welcome them as confederates against a common foe. What are the obstacles to such a union?

They are only such as high-toned, patriotic men, determined to be guided in the bestowal of their suffrages by an intelligent regard for the public weal, should spurn. All former differences between the two parties have been set at rest by the judgment of the country in behalf of Democratic measures, and there remains no obstacle to a union of the friends of the Constitution which is assailed in its most vital parts by a dangerous cabal against which the democratic organization affords the only hope of a successful resistance. It seems to us that the question, with conservative, constitution-loving whigs, is narrowed down to this, whether their repugnance to the name of democracy is greater than their devotion to the constitution. It were an insult to the more intelligent part of them, at least, to suppose that their prejudices would overcome their judgment."

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY MEETING.

☞The Democracy of BEDFORD County will hold a

Grand Mass Meeting

in the Court-House in the Borough of Bedford on MONDAY EVENING of the approaching County Court for the purpose of nominating a Ticket to be supported at the next election, and to adopt such measures as may be deemed necessary to secure its triumphant success at the Polls. As there will be no amalgamation in the formation of this Ticket—no bowing of the knee to any principle not recognized by the creed of JEFFERSON, JACKSON, POLK and PIERCE, it is earnestly hoped that every man who still adheres to these glorious old land-marks will be present to give force and countenance to the proceedings. All who stand opposed to Know Nothingism—who repudiate the abominable acts of the late Legislature—and who desire, honestly, the triumph of DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES—are cordially invited to attend. A number of able speakers will be present to address the meeting.

Hon. Charles S. Morehead.

The dilemma in which a gentleman is apt to involve himself by lending his name and giving his energies to a proscriptive party is aptly and amusingly illustrated in the following sketch from the last Lexington (Kentucky) Statesman. We have had great respect for Mr. M.'s personal character, but this curious retrospect almost awakens our commiseration. It will not be forgotten that he is now the candidate for governor of Kentucky of the spurious American party:

"A CHANGE OF TACTICS.—In the know-nothing ritual, as it appeared in their own organs, and as it was republished the other day in this paper, our readers will remember that having a Catholic wife disqualified a man from becoming a member of the secret order. But it will be seen that, in the secret circular of the Frankfort know-nothing executive committee, which we published in our Tuesday's paper, it is provided as follows:

"5. Having a Catholic wife does not NOW disqualify any such person from becoming a member of the order.'

"Some have supposed that this new piece of tactics originated in a desire to get more voters into the order; but, while we do not deny that such a motive may have had its influence, we can well conceive that the immediate cause of this interpolation into the know-nothing creed had its origin in the peculiar antecedents of Mr. Charles S. Morehead, the Hindoo candidate for governor.

"Mr. Morehead has been the husband of two wives, both of whom he married in this city, both of whom were daughters of the same parents; and those parents were Catholics in religion, and reared their children in that faith.

"The parents of Mr. Morehead's two wives were not only Catholics in religion, but, what is still more astonishing when we reflect that the excellent Mr. Morehead is the know-nothing candidate for governor, they were Irish people—very respectable, to be sure, and none the worse for that, in democratic estimation—but still they were Irish, and attested the country of their origin by the 'rich Irish brogue.'—Their name was Leavy. One of Mr. Morehead's marriages took place during the pastoral administration of Father Baden, a faithful Catholic priest, who had charge of the Catholic flock in this city in those days. Father Baden was also a native of the Emerald Isle, and his accent was also enriched by the 'brogue;' and he was the priest who officiated on the occasion of one of Mr. Morehead's marriages; but that was before the excellent Mr. Morehead got scared at the Pope, or thought of becoming the know-nothing candidate for governor. In those days the excellent Mr. Morehead thought the Irish and the Catholics very clever people: but, then, says the adage, 'wise men change their opinions—fools never.'"

THE MISFORTUNE OF A SPECULATOR.—Seth T. Hurd of the Brownsville Clipper, tells the following:

Not a thousand miles from this place there resides a man who, during the time of great scarcity last winter, was the possessor of several hundred barrels of flour. This he declared he would not sell under $15 per barrel, and, though he had an opportunity of disposing of it several times, at from $11 to $12, he yet held on to it, doubtless hoping that the crops this season would fail, and he would profit thereby.

The prospect of a beautiful harvest became [illegible] provisions fell lower and lower, when he became alarmed lest flour should come to $4 or $5, and he shipped it to Pittsburg, where he sold it for about $9 per barrel.

He returned, supposing he had made the best of a bad bargain, but ere long he received a letter from the person to whom he had sold the flour, requesting him to come down immediately. He accordingly set out for Pittsburg, and on arriving there he found all his flour had turned sour, and he was compelled to return the money and take back the flour, which he afterwards sold to a starch maker for $2 and $3 per barrel, and again returned to his home "a wiser if not a better man."

☞The Flour speculators in New York, are severely caught, in consequence of the rapid decline in prices, in view of the promised abundance of the coming harvests, both here and in Europe. It is stated that some parties who purchased on time, in May, when prices were as high as $12 and $13 per bbl. are turning over their contracts now, and paying a difference of from $2 to $3,50 per barrel. Some sales were made on Saturday, of good brands, at $7. Speculators in Philadelphia also suffer pretty severely in the same way. It is even said that many sales of Flour here have been made within the last few days, at a greatly reduced figure than what appears in the published report of the market, but kept secret with a view not to affect the general market. Germantown Telegraph.

From the Chambersburg Whig.

THE NATIONAL Organ, the organ of the Know-Nothings, takes the Pennsylvania State Council to task for insubordination, and declares that "the members of the American Order have incurred a solemn obligation to abide by its decrees." The following is its language:—

THE PENNSYLVANIA SCHISM.—It has usually been considered that a party which accepts a representation in a common convention, is bound by the act of that body. It is moreover known that the members of the American order have incured a solemn obligation to abide by its decrees. In violation, as we conceive, of both these principles, a large section of the American order in Pennsylvania has separated itself, and whilst it has adopted the greater part of the National Platform, it has repudiated that clause which proposed the settlement of the most dangerous question that has ever presented itself to the American people.

"The Pittsburg Union."

The Pittsburg daily Union—published by Thomas J. Keenan & Co—is one of the best papers in the State—decidedly the best one in Pittsburg. In fact it is now the only reliable democratic paper in that city. Our readers will notice that nearly all our telegraphic reports are from the "Pittsburg Daily Union." The Union is Democratic to the core, and free from all suspicions of being under Know-Nothing control. Any person desiring an excellent daily paper could not do better than send for the Union. Price $5 per annum.—Waynesburg Messenger.

DREADFUL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Two Persons Killed and Twelve or Fourteen Injured.—An accident occurred on the Portage Railroad, a few miles west of Hollidaysburg, on Monday evening week, of such fearful extent as to startle our whole community and sadden all our people. The circumstances, as nearly as we have been able to gather them, appear to be that in the morning a number of young folks—male and female—went up to the mountain to gather blackberries, and were returning in the evening on the locomotive and tender. About the time of their returning a very heavy rain occured, a land slide took place on the track, which was not observed in time to stop the train, and the locomotive and tender were thrown off the track and down an embankment of some 30 or 40 feet, more or less crushing and mangling some 15 or 16 of those on board, killing one on the instant and mortally injuring another.—Hol. Register.

THE DEVIL RIGHT FOR ONCE.—The New York correspondent of the Congregationalist writes:

"Dr. H., who is pastor of an Orthodox church, has been for some time annoyed by the forwardness of a lay brother to 'speak'" whenever an opportunity was offered, to the frequent exclusion of those whose remarks had a greater tendency to edification. This had been carried so far that the pastor, whenever he stated that 'an opportunity would now be afforded for any brother to offer an exhortation,' had always a secret dread of the loquacious member. On one special occasion the latter prefaced a prosy, incoherent harrangue, with an account of a previous controversy he had been carrying on with the great adversary. 'My friends, said he, the devil and I have been fighting for more than twenty minutes; he told me not to speak to-night, but I determined I would: he said some of the rest could speak better than I, but still I felt that I could not keep silent; he even whispered that I spoke too often, and that nobody wanted to hear me: but I was not to be put down that way, and now that I have gained the victory, I must tell you all that is in my heart.' Then followed the tedious harangue aforesaid. As they were coming out of the session room, the good pastor inclined his head so that his mouth approached the ear of the militant member, and whispered: 'Brother, I think the Devil was right!'"

HEMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated
Compound Fluid Extract of Buchu,

For Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys, Secret Diseases, Strictures, Weaknesses, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of Quacks, who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with glaring falsehoods too well calculated to deceive the young and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

THE FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU has been pronounced by eminent Physicians THE GREATEST REMEDY EVER KNOWN. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and, unlike other remedies, it does not dry up the disease in the blood.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBILITY, brought on by self-abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious ambition of many a noble youth, can be cured by this infallible remedy. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found, acting both as a cure and preventative.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished Physicians in the country, and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary Syphilis, Mercurial and Scrofulous diseases have entirely recovered in the incurable wards of our Public Institutions which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be devised. These cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases, after the glands were destroyed and the bones already affected.

NOTICE.—Letters from responsible Physicians and Professors of several Medical Colleges, and certificates of cures from patients will be found accompanying both Preparations.

Prices—Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle.
" " Sarsaparilla " "
or 6 bottles for $5, equal in strength to one gallon Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

Bedford Academy

AND

FEMALE SEMINARY.

W. W. CAMPBELL, Principal.

This Institution, hitherto under the care of Rev. John Lyon, will henceforth be conducted by the present Principal. The past history of the Academy will, we trust, be a sufficient guaranty of its future efficiency. The branches taught will be the same as heretofore. To MASTER PRINCIPLES will be considered the most important pursuit of the pupils; and while it will be the constant business of the Instructor to impart knowledge, it will also be his aim to lead his pupils to make a practical application of their acquisitions. To load the mind with innumerable formulas, without causing it to use them, would be like placing a bow in a child's hand, without teaching him how to bend it. In fine, it shall be our object, as it has ever been, to lead the pupil to THINK.

We look forward confidently to the patronage of this community, which has thus far been so generously extended, and by an undiminished assiduity, we hope to merit your support.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

No. 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

J. D. SPRING, Laceyville, Pa., April 6, 1854, says: "I can get you some good certificates for your German Bitters in this vicinity if you wish them. A lady purchasing some of it this week, says that it is by far the best medicine she ever knew, having done her and her daughmuch good, &c."

S. B. LAWSON, Benfard's Store, Somerset Co., Pa., August 15, 1853, says: "I am much attached to your German Bitters, having used two bottles of it, which I procured from S. Kurtz, your agent at Somerset, and found great relief from in disease of the Liver. I find it has great effect upon my lungs, strengthening and invigorating them, which, as I am a public speaker, is a great help to me."

DR. GILES, Newton Hamilton, Pa., May, 1851, said: I have used myself half a dozen bottles of your German Bitters for Liver complaint and diseases of a nervous character, resulting from the abuse of mercury. I was poisoned and afflicted with spasms from the use of this latter article. The German Bitters is the first article from which I obtained any relief. I have also given the article to many dyspeptics, with the most salutary result. I think as many more bottles will cure me."

J. C. YOUNG, Esq., of Dauphin, Pa., writes May 5, 1851: "I was afflicted with General Debility, Intestinal weakness and Costiveness, for which I used many different remedies without relief. I at last used your Hoofland's German Bitters. I took a few bottles according to directions, and was completely cured. I have not been so healthy for ten years as I have been since I took your Bitters, which is about one year ago."

The Bitters are ENTIRELY VEGETABLE, always strengthening the system and never prostrating it.

Sold by dealers in medicine and storekeepers everywhere. And by
